A close-up photograph showing a person's hands operating a label-making machine. The machine is a silver-colored metal device with rollers and a cutting mechanism. A roll of white material with rectangular silver-colored labels is being fed into the machine. The person is holding a single label that has been cut out, showing its white background and silver-colored rectangular area. Several other cut labels are fanned out on the surface to the right of the machine. The background is a plain, light-colored surface.
